Community

I regularly meet with a group of friends in order to grow in faith together and challenge each other to grow deeper in Christ.

First Steps

Find a suitable short term study, 4-6 weeks, like The Shack or a Max Lucado study when they are offered. Book studies generally fall into this category. Talk with a pastor or another person from the church to make sure your choice is an appropriate one.

Next Steps

Find a Sunday morning group, or get involved with the Men's Ministry or United Methodist Women. Sign up for a longer term study (8-10 weeks), like Invitation to John or Romans.

Continuing

Long term studies, such as the Disciple series, give us an opportunity to be deeply immersed in community and scripture. Give this commitment serious consideration.
