Sermon: “Hey Neighbor!”

PERSONAL WORD

It is the season of making resolutions, fresh starts, and re-inventing yourself. For the next few weeks, the treadmills at the gym will have a waiting line, dieters will reach for the organic Greek antimicrobial yogurt instead of ice cream, and ash trays will be a little less full.

The closest we ever come to feeling like real change is possible is around this time of year, but our resolutions rarely change us very much. I ate my turnip greens and black-eyed peas again this year, watched more football than is recommended by the Surgeon General, but when it comes down to it, I usually feel like the same person on January 1st that I was on the last day of December. But there is no other time of the year where people are so convinced that they can change in dramatic fashion. We vow to lose weight, to save money, to be better parents, to exercise more, to read that Russian novel.

We desperately want change in our lives, and the new year makes that obvious. But what it also makes clear is that few of us are actually willing to change.

One of the many blessings of faith in Jesus Christ is that we Christians believe that any day can be a new beginning. Any old Tuesday, your world can be turned upside down and inside out by the grace of Jesus Christ, and you can have a fresh start.

And that may be why I am always so confused by our culture’s customs around the New Year – we seem convinced that we can change ourselves. Even though we all lived through last year’s resolutions and saw how those turned out, when December 31 rolls around again, we will make the same promises to ourselves, believing that on willpower alone, we can reinvent our identity.

But Christianity teaches us something about change. Real and genuine change comes not from our own doing, but from our willingness to partner with God and the Body of Christ. The brave men and women of Alcoholics Anonymous and other support groups have something to teach us Sunday morning folks about change, because their entire process revolves around God and mutual support. They are able to change their lives precisely because they acknowledge they need help, and they cannot do it on their own.

One of the most important functions of Christian fellowship is to create partnerships of transformation, where we shape one another through accountability, prayer, and friendship. When church works, it is two or three gathered in the name of Christ to be Christ for one another.

Beginning this week, Trinity is going to begin a new year’s resolution – a shared ministry goal for the 2015 calendar year. It’s simple, direct, and straight from the heart of Jesus: We want to be a better neighbor.

For the next twelve months, we are going to find new ways to reach out to our community as a church, as individual disciples of Christ, and as families. We are calling this campaign “Hey Neighbor,” and beginning this Sunday through the first Sunday of February (Connect Sunday), Nathan and I will be preaching on ways we can start to recognize the mission field God has planted us in.

On our own, our resolutions are likely to turn out the way they always have. But when we band together as the Body of Christ, fueled by the Holy Spirit – new life is on the way.

See you Sunday.

Brian

How can we commit to living out scripture as disciples this year? We can grow in love with God and our neighbors through studying together and learning from the Holy Spirit and one another.

THE GOSPEL OF MARK (ongoing)

The oldest of the four Gospels, Mark shows people who Jesus was by describing what Jesus did. This book describes the ministry of Jesus from his baptism to his death, burial, and the discovery of the empty tomb. This informal weekly study is open to anyone, and requires no prep or weekly commitment. Wed. 6-7:00. New start date, begins Jan. 14. Leader: Rev. Brian Erickson. No charge.

• RELATIONSHIP STUDIES •

LOVE, SEX & DATING by Andy Stanley

Best of all, he offers the most practical and uncensored advice you will ever hear on this topic. Mon. 6-7:00, begins Jan. 26. Leader: Ryane Clayton. No charge.

LAUGHING YOUR WAY TO A BETTER MARRIAGE by Mark Gungor
(12 weeks)

Need to fine tune your marriage? Need to laugh together? Join Mark Gungor, pastor and motivational speaker, on a journey to make positive changes in your everyday relationship. Leaders: Derek and Lee Ellen Sharp. Cost: $16.

• VARIOUS STUDIES •

24/6 – A PRESCRIPTION FOR A HEALTHIER, HAPPIER LIFE by Dr. Matthew Sleeth
(5 weeks)

“Remember the Sabbath and keep it holy.” Sounds nice, but how do we find rest in a 24/7 world? The Sabbath is about letting go of the controls one day a week and letting God be God. Dr. Sleeth lays out a simple plan for living a healthier, more God-centered life in a digitally-dazed, always-on world by adopting Sabbath practices. Wed. 6-7:00, begins Jan. 21. Leader: Rev. Mack Chapman. Cost: $11.

ONE THOUSAND GIFTS by Ann Voskamp
(6 weeks)

How do you find joy in the midst of deadlines, debt, drama and daily duties? Voskamp shares her moment of grace, how to biblically grieve and then choose to find the deep joy (chara) found at the table of thanksgiving. As long as “thanks” is possible, then joy is always possible. Wed. 6-7:00, begins Jan 21. Leader: Rev. Suzanne Pruitt. Cost: $13 for book and study guide.

PRAYING FOR OUR ADULT SONS & DAUGHTERS by John J. & Therese Boucher
(10 weeks)

When our children become adults, we can't protect them like we used to. We need new strategies for caring for them. The most important strategy of all is to lift up our adult children in prayer and place them in the heart of God. When we do so, God's love is unleashed – in them and in us. God can replace our worries and discouragement with refreshment and hope. Sun. 6-7:00, begins Jan. 18. Leader: Alyce Hartley. Wed. 6-7:00, begins Jan. 21. Leader: Donna Gardner. Cost $11.

THE DANIEL PLAN by Rick Warren
(6 weeks)

Taking care of our bodies is a spiritual exercise. The Daniel Plan is a groundbreaking healthy lifestyle program founded on biblical principles and focused on The Essentials: Faith, Food, Fitness, Focus and Friends. The program offers an innovative approach to achieving a healthy lifestyle where people get better together by optimizing their health in each of these life areas. Sun. 6-7:00, begins Jan. 25. Leader: Cynthia Parris. Wed. 6-7:00, begins Jan. 21. Leader: Carrie Thayer. Limit 12 per class. Cost: $24 for book and study guide.

• WOMEN'S STUDIES •

THE BEST YES by Lisa Terkeurst
(7 weeks)

There is a difference between saying yes to everyone and saying yes to God. This study will help you to overcome the agony of difficult choices by embracing a wisdom-based decision process. Wed. 6-7:00, begins Jan. 21. Leader: Lisa Jones. Cost: $19 for book and study guide.

BROKEN & BLESSED by Jessica LaGrone
(7 weeks)

Every family since the beginning of time has been both broken and blessed. In this bible study, we will see that despite the brokenness of Adam and Eve's family, God chose to love and bless them, which results in this family making a difference for future generations. We will see that God wants us to do the same in our imperfect families today. Thurs. 9:15-11:15, begins Jan. 22. Leader: Alice Elliott. Cost: $12.

There are three ways to register for studies:

- 1) Online at www.trinitybirmingham.com
- 2) Complete the hard copy registration form found on next page
- 3) Sign up at registration tables in the narthexes on Sundays, January 4 & 11
